

RESIDENCE LIFE PROGRAM REVIEW

2007 – 2011

Presented by:

Laura Giles

Kyle Oldham

Teresa Metzger

OUR FOUNDATION

JUST THE FACTS

Residence Life

To create safe and inclusive learning communities that support, challenge, and inspire all students to be ethical leaders and citizens in a diverse society

50
full-time and
graduate staff
members

6200
undergraduates
20% non-first year students

12
residence halls

By the Numbers

100
collaborations
across CSU

360
student staff

2200
programs each year

150
student leaders

16
Residential Learning
Communities

PROGRAM REVIEW PROCESS

- ▶ Fall 2011: Hosted external reviewers
- ▶ Fall 2011: Gathered self-assessment
- ▶ Spring 2012: Hosted external reviewers for Learning Communities Review

Writing...writing...documenting...documenting...editing...editing...
review...review....

DONE! start again

STRENGTHS

- ✓ Partnerships
- ✓ Student Success
- ✓ Growth/Expansion
- ✓ Dedicated and Diverse Staff
- ✓ Training/Professional Development Program
- ✓ Student Leadership
- ✓ Customer Service
- ✓ Contributions to Higher Education
- ✓ Fiscally Responsible

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Expand student learning initiatives to all halls
- Enhance assignments/operations
- Review organizational structure
- Develop formalized assessment plan
- Increase returning students
- Enhance International Student experience
- Continue focus on work environment
- Review programming and budget structure

ACHIEVEMENTS

- ☑ Reorganized staffing model
- ☑ Enhanced assignments processes
- ☑ Increased returning students
- ☑ Developed collaborative partnerships
- ☑ Developed framework for residential experience

Got my first res. hall choice
BAAAAAA-NAN-AAAAS!

FUTURE

- ❖ Continue to create inclusive learning communities and serve as retention agent
- ❖ Implement Residential Curriculum
- ❖ Continue enhancement of assignments experience
- ❖ Increase efficiencies through use of technology
- ❖ Tell our story
- ❖ Create robust staff experience

 Residence Life

Explained in Emoji

