

- 60% of Key students will be able to identify three to four skills they have gained from co-curricular experiences as demonstrated through the end of year evaluation.
- 70% of Key students will be able to articulate how service activities impact the larger community and themselves as demonstrated through the end of year evaluation.